

Join the Immaculate Conception Sodality for a Day trip to Baltimore Shrines

October 17, 2018 - One-day Pilgrimage to three Baltimore Catholic Shrines

We depart Immaculate Conception, 200 Ware Ave Baltimore MD 21204, at 8:15 am aboard a private touring motor coach arriving at the National Shrine of Saint Alphonsus Liguori for a 9am tour. A landmark at Saratoga Street and Park Avenue in downtown Baltimore since 1845, designed by the eminent architect Robert Cary Long in Southern German neo-Gothic Style, was once dubbed "the German cathedral". St. John Neumann served at St. Alphonsus and was ordained Bishop of Philadelphia in the church. Blessed Francis Seelos also served the parish as pastor.

Later we arrive for a visit at St. Jude Shrine. For over 80 years the Pallottine Priests and Brothers have welcomed countless visitors to St. Jude Shrine, the Nationwide Center of St. Jude Devotions, located in the heart of Baltimore, Maryland. We will tour the shrine and attend Mass. We will then enjoy a wonderful lunch in Little Italy at Sabbatino's Restaurant.

After lunch we'll visit Holy Rosary Church. The parish is the Archdiocesan Shrine of the Divine Mercy. The miraculous healing of Holy Rosary priest Fr. Ron Pytel in 1995 led to the canonization of St. Faustina Kowalska. In 1927, the cornerstone was laid for this beautiful Romanesque-style church that seats 2,000 and is the largest church in the Archdiocese of Baltimore. The church is uniquely wide without any support columns or pillars. We will tour the church and later return home from our spiritual journey.
